3 Ethics CE Credits

Approved by NBCC and KY LMFT Board

This workshop, featuring Dr. Ken Hollis, will focus on the difficulty defining “ethics” and spirituality”, as well as on the tension that often exists between professional codes of ethics, personal codes of ethics, and personal spirituality. Participants will have opportunity to flesh out their personal ethics and personal spirituality, as the presenter suggests one possible model through which one can work within a Christian worldview while abiding by the AAMFT code of ethics.

About the Presenter

Ken Hollis holds both a D.Min. and Ph.D. from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. Dr. Hollis is the Program Director for the COAMFTE-accredited Marriage and Family Therapy Program at Campbellsville University and recently completed a long term ministry at Beechland Baptist Church. Ken is a KY Licensed LMFT and an AAMFT Clinical Fellow and Approved Supervisor.
